

10Calc Privacy Policy

Last updated: 1/21/2017

I, Gerald Maffeo, am the publisher of the 10Calc Business Calculator Windows 10 application ("App"). This page informs you of policies regarding the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information I receive from users of the App.

I use your Personal Information only for providing and improving the App and for communicating with customers. By using the App, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

Information Collection and Use

While using this App, you may request support or wish to provide feedback via email links provided in the App. Whether you choose to send such information is totally at your discretion. These requests and any ensuing conversations provide certain personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you. Personally identifiable information includes, but is not limited to, your email address ("Personal Information").

Log Data

Like many Apps, I may collect information that the App creates whenever it encounters an exception, a.k.a. crash ("Log Data"). The App may request you to send an error report with this information so that I can improve the App. Other than your email address, no other personally identifiable information is included in the error report.

In addition, I may use analytics services that Microsoft provides for Store applications that collect, monitor and analyze the App's usage, health and characteristics.

Communications

I may use your Personal Information to contact you for support, marketing, volume purchases, promotional materials and other information. All communications with you are strictly confidential. I will only provide your Personal Information to third parties with your explicit permission.

Changes To This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy is effective as of January 21, 2017 and will remain in effect, except that any future changes to its provisions will take effect immediately after being updated on this page.

I reserve the right to update or change this Privacy Policy at any time and you should check this Privacy Policy periodically. Your continued use of the App after I post any modifications to the Privacy Policy on this page will constitute your acknowledgment of the modifications and your consent to abide and be bound by the modified Privacy Policy.
